Asymmetric war ^ war between a conventional army and armed insurgents ^ has made cities one site in the map for war-ring. Cities worldwide are becoming a key theater for asymmetric war, regardless of what side of the divide they are on ^ allies or enemies. The Cold War: A New History - PC\|MAC The Cold War: A New History is meant chiefly, therefore, for a new generation of readers for whom the Cold War was never "current events." I hope readers who lived through the Cold War will also find the volume useful, because as Marx once said (Groucho, not Karl), "Outside of a dog, a book is a Chapter 3 The Korean War and General MacArthur *From his command post in Japan General MacArthur blamed much of the defeat suffered by UN forces on the lack of support for his armies. MacArthur differed with the Truman administration on three major points: 1. MacArthur wanted to use nuclear weapons, which the US possessed in far larger numbers than the Soviets.
